The Stu Show, Is Spreading Its Message to Kids Across the Country

To Become a Real Superhero, Be Kind, Be Positive, and Read

Chicago, IL (April 12th, 2017)— The Stu Show – Be Kind, Be Positive, and Read – is a motivational 30 minute interactive, engaging, message-themed performance of original, fun sing-a-longs about being KIND, POSITIVE and READING. There are eight rules to becoming a Superhero and The Stu Show covers them all!

Stu is so passionate and determined to spread this message to kids, that if a school, hospital or youth organization does not have the ability to fund his event, he will gladly donate his performance.

What began as writing songs with positive messages for his young granddaughter Eden, is now a crusade that has become a passion for Stuart Jacobson, performer of The Stu Show.

The principles of Stu's message are clear:

- To have a variety of friends, you should know a variety of subjects.
- Reading is the key.
- To keep people in your life, you should bring plenty of positivity and kindness to them.

Jacobson has successfully spread his message as a public speaker, auctioneer, humorist, and songwriter. He has also devoted much of his life to helping others. For Stu, it is simple, if you want to be a great violinist, you practice every day! If you want to be a great person, you practice all day, every day!

The show is geared toward children in kindergarten through the 5th grade.
